

George Bradner
Asst. Deputy Commissioner and Director
Property & Casualty Division
Connecticut Insurance Department

George Bradner is the Connecticut Insurance Department's Asst. Deputy Commissioner and the Director of Property & Casualty. He oversees a division that regulates the rates and forms of more than 500 companies licensed to write property & casualty insurance in Connecticut.

In 2023, Mr. Bradner received the prestigious Robert Dineen Award from the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC). This honor, named after the founder of the NAIC's Support and Services Office, is the organization's highest recognition for a state regulator, awarded for exceptional service and contributions to the field.

He works closely with Commissioner Andrew Mais coordinate and lead the Department's preparation, response and recovery operations during disasters, ensuring that consumers and the industry are provided with guidance on claims, licensing and others important resources. As one of the Department's key disaster response liaisons, Mr. Bradner serves on the Division of Emergency Management and Homeland Security (DEMHS) Advisory Council and the Cyber Security Council and is the Co-Chairman for the states Long Term Recovery Committee (FEMA Emergency Support Function-14). He was appointed by the Governor and the Deputy Commissioner of DEMHS to serve as the co-lead for the states Sandy Disaster Recovery initiatives.

An active participant in the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, Mr. Bradner currently Chairs the Transparency and Readability of Consumer Information working and Co-Chairs the Regulator Sup Tech working group, he also sits on numerous working groups including Property & Casualty (C) Committee, the Catastrophe Insurance, and Climate Risk & Resilience working groups, the Cyber Security Task Force, Innovation & Technology (EX) task force, Big Data working groups, Terrorism Insurance Implementation working group, Travel & Pet Insurance working group, and the Workers' Compensation task force.

Prior to joining the Department in 2003, Mr. Bradner worked for the Hartford Insurance Company where his broad-based career included extensive experience in Underwriting, Sales, and Operations. He is a graduate of Ithaca College in upstate New York.