

Paul Lombardo, A.S.A., M.A.A.A.

Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Life & Health Division
Connecticut Insurance Department

Paul Lombardo is an Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Life & Health Division at the Connecticut Department of Insurance.

Paul oversees a division responsible for reviewing all Life & Health form filings submitted to the Department as well as implementing any changes that may have a future impact on policy forms. This includes a thorough review and analysis of all state and federal legislation.

In 2020, Paul was awarded the prestigious Robert Dineen Award by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC). The Robert Dineen Award is the highest and most prestigious award given to a state regulator for outstanding service and contributions and is named in honor of the founder of the NAIC's Support and Services Office.

Prior to becoming Director in 2018, Paul was the Chief Actuary for the Life & Health Division for over 21 years.

Currently, he's the Co-Chair of the NAIC LTC Actuarial Working Group. Serves on the NAIC AG-51 and AG-53 review groups and is a member of the LTC Multi-State Actuarial Review team.

Before becoming a regulator, Paul held various actuarial positions at Aetna, including five years in the group LTC pricing and valuation area.